

Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 18, 1878.

PRAYERS.—Prayers need not be fine. I believe God abhors fine prayers. If a person ask charity of you in elegant sentences he is not likely to get it. Finery in dress or language is out of place in beggars. I heard a man in the street one day begging aloud by means of a magnificent oration. He used grand language in a very pompous style, and I dare say he thought he was sure of getting piles of coppers by his borrowed speech; but I for one, gave him nothing, but felt more inclined to laugh at his bombast. Is it not likely that many great prayers are about as useless? Many prayer meeting prayers are a great deal of fine. Keep your figures and metaphors for fine. Use them to those who want to be instructed but do not parade them before God. When we pray, the simpler our prayers are the better; the plainest, humblest language which expresses our meaning is the best.—Springoon.

OPPOSED TO WINE AT COMMUNION.—At the late session of the R. W. G. L. of Good Templars of the World, the committee on the sacramental wine question presented its report, which was adopted after a long discussion. The report recommends that the members of their order express their deliberate conviction that the use of fermented wine at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is nowhere sanctioned in the Scriptures, and counsel members of the several churches to which they belong to induce those having charge of the matter to provide unfermented wine for sacramental use.
